

Proclamation

WHEREAS Canada has declared November 20th as National Child Day to celebrate the rights of children;

AND WHEREAS November 20th is also the day the United Nations adopted the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) in 1989;

AND WHEREAS every child deserves love, safety, and the opportunity to be heard;

AND WHEREAS we reaffirm our commitment to care for all children, to listen to their ideas, and to support their dreams;

AND WHEREAS we see and respect all the amazing things children are doing at home, at school, and in their community to make our world a better place;

AND WHEREAS we pledge to support them and their efforts, because we know it will create a brighter future for all of us;

NOW, THEREFORE the Council of the City of Port Moody does hereby declare November 20, 2023, as

“Children’s Day”

Dated this 14th day of November, 2023

---

Meghan Lahti
Mayor

---

Ally
Mayor for a Day