Hi Tim,

Per policy "Policy Requests to Council for delegations or resolutions on non-jurisdictional issues will not be placed on the Council agenda for consideration unless requested specifically by a member of Council."

I would like to request this delegation request be placed on a subsequent agenda.

Thanks
Haven

Good afternoon Council

As per Council's policy, Non-Jurisdictional Issues are defined as issues over which Council does not have legal, financial, geographic, or operational effect. As such this matter is Non-Jurisdictional by definition.

The group has been informed that individuals can attend Public Input and share their view as per our procedure.

This is provided for your information.

I'm asking mayor and council to allow Sue Big Oil to present as a delegation. The group was rejected as being non-jurisdictional when they applied to show up as the Jan. 23rd meeting, which is ridiculous. Port Moody will be spending millions in climate change adaptation so it's jurisdictional. Let the delegation proceed.
