Council Committee System Policy

Policy

Pursuant to the Community Charter, section 141, the Mayor must establish standing committees for matters the Mayor considers would be better dealt with by committee, and pursuant to section 142, the Council of the City of Port Moody may establish and appoint select committees to inquire into any matter and to report its findings and opinions to the Council.

Definitions

“Advisory Bodies of Council” means all committees, boards, task forces, commissions, and working groups, established by Council in accordance with their right under the Community Charter.

“Legislative Services Coordinator” means the staff member assigned by the Corporate Officer to provide administrative support to a committee.

“Honourary Member” means a member who does not have a vote, is not obliged to attend meetings, and shall not be counted for purposes of forming quorum.

“Select Committee” means a committee established by Council resolution pursuant to section 142 of the Community Charter, and to which Council may appoint citizens. At least one member of a select committee must be a Council member.

“Staff Liaison” means the staff member assigned by the City Manager to assist a committee in a non-voting advisory and resource capacity.

“Standing Committee” means an advisory body to Council established by the Mayor pursuant to section 141 of the Community Charter to which the Mayor shall appoint Council representatives and may appoint citizen members. The Charter requires that at least half the members be members of Council.

“Statutory Committee” means a board, commission, or committee established pursuant to a specific enabling statute, including a Library Board established pursuant to the Library Act, a Police Board established pursuant to the Police Act, a commission may be established pursuant to section 953 of the Local Government Act, a Family Court Committee established pursuant to the Provincial Court Act, and any other body established pursuant to enabling legislation which serves in an arms-length capacity on behalf of or in cooperation with the municipality.

“Task Force” and “Working Group” means a short-term select committee established to inquire into a specific issue within a bounded time period. After the task force reports its findings and opinions to Council, its work will be concluded, and the task force will be disbanded.

Preference may be given to applicants who are members of one or more of the following groups: women, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, and members of a visible minority group.](#)

4.1.11.1.2 Membership of committees will be diverse, and broadly reflective of the community.

4.1.21.1.3 Membership will also reflect desired experience, knowledge, expertise, and geographic representation in the community.

All committees, with the exception of the Youth Focus Committee, will submit their reports no later than the first meeting in January of the following year. Due to the school year, the Youth Focus Committee shall submit their annual report in June.

13.5.2 Task forces will submit a report to Council upon completion of their mandates.

14. Authority

Committees do not have the authority to communicate with other levels of government, pledge the credit of the City, or authorize any expenditures to be charged against the City, except as may be provided in their enabling statutes or establishment bylaws.

15. Budget

15.1 Unless otherwise provided in their enabling statutes or establishment bylaws, committees may request budget funds from Council in accordance with the City budget preparation schedule and procedure.

15.2 Any solicitation of funds from other organizations requires prior approval of Council.

15.3 Committees shall have reasonable use of miscellaneous City services, such as photocopying, paper supplies, and meeting areas, which are primarily provided through the Legislative Services Coordinator.

Monitoring/Authority

The Legislative Services Division will administer this policy.

APPENDIX A

Committee Meeting Guidelines

The Agenda

- Have an agenda and stick to it.
- The agenda is like a contract between the Chair and the members: “In return for your preparation, time, and participation, we will deal with these issues.”
- The agenda package may have supporting material attached for members to read in advance.

Rule of the Clock

- Start on time and end on time – do not reward latecomers.
- Keep the meeting to 1½ to 2 hours. If the meeting is longer than that, people leave, bodily or otherwise. If the meeting is shorter than that, there is not enough time to develop the team, something that has to be redone at every meeting.

Handling the Business of the Meeting

- Agendas may have many items, sometimes seemingly too many items. Some items are for action, while others may be updates or items just for information. Focus on those that are for discussion or decision, are important and urgent, and where the background work has been done. Keep the time spent just informing people to a minimum.
- Most groups do their most effective work at about 2/3 of the way through the meeting. You could plan the most difficult decisions and discussions at that point.

Good decision-making requires:

- background information;
- options and recommendations;
- preparation before the meeting; and
- the participation of committee members.

Role of Chair

The role of the Chair is critical for effective meetings. The Chair should be:

Leader	⇒ willing to give up personal interests, and willing to work with the whole group
Facilitator	⇒ able to encourage people to participate, help people to listen to each other, and to reflect back the common threads of the discussion

Corporate Policy Manual
Council Committee System Policy

The Chair's duties are to:

- check if a quorum is present and open the meeting at the prescribed time;
- announce the business in the proper sequence (as on the agenda);
- recognize members entitled to speak, in the order in which they request to speak;
- state and put the questions (resolutions which have been moved and seconded) to a vote;
- enforce the rules of decorum;
- expedite business;
- decide questions of order and respond to parliamentary enquiries; and
- declare the meeting adjourned when business is complete.

Decision-making

Committees should strive for consensus in their decision-making. However, final decisions are made by resolution adopted by a majority vote.

Voting and Debating Rights

Each member of a committee, including the chair, may make or second motions, may debate motions, and may vote.

Common Terms and Procedures

Unanimous General Consent is an informal method of resolving a routine and non-controversial procedural issue. For example, the presiding member may seek unanimous general consent as follows:

“Is there any objection to moving item 7 forward on the agenda and considering it now? Hearing none, we will proceed now with item 7.”

Friendly Amendment is an informal method of making a minor change to a motion or amendment. For example, during debate, it may be indicated that a minor change to a motion or amendment would better achieve the intent of the mover. The Chair may then ask:

“Is there any objection to adding the words ‘.....’? Hearing no objection, the words are added and the motion now reads: ‘...’ OR “Hearing no objection, the words are added. Would the Legislative Services Coordinator please read the motion? ... Is there any further discussion on the motion?”

*Caution: Overuse of this method could result in confusion.

Corporate Policy Manual
Council Committee System Policy

Motions and Amendments

A main motion is a proposal to take action or give direction. The steps of handling a main motion are:

1. A member makes a motion ("I move that")
2. Another member seconds the motion ("Second" or "I second the motion")
3. The chair states the motion or moves directly to debate ("It is moved and seconded that" AND/OR "Is there any discussion?")
4. Debate, and amendment if any, takes place.
5. The Chair puts the motion to a vote: ("We are now voting on the motion to Those in favour? [Those voting in the affirmative indicate by raising a hand.] Opposed? [Those voting against indicate by raising a hand]")
Members should always clearly indicate their vote by raising their hand at the appropriate time. Those who do not vote by raising a hand are counted as voting in the affirmative.
6. The Chair announces the result ("Motion passes." "Motion defeated." "Tie Vote - motion defeated.")

Amending Motions

An amendment is a motion to change the wording of another motion before voting on it. An amendment is always dealt with before the original motion. In effect, the amendment temporarily sets aside the motion which it proposes to modify. A motion to amend a debatable motion is debatable and requires the same steps as a main motion.

Three Methods of Amending a Motion

1. By inserting or adding words
"I move that the motion be amended by inserting the word[s] ... between the word ... and the word" OR... "I move that the motion be amended by adding the word[s] ..."
2. By striking out words
"I move that the motion be amended by deleting the words"
3. By striking out words and inserting replacement words
"I move that the foregoing motion be amended by deleting the words ... and inserting the words ... in their place."

Only two levels of amendment are allowed. A main motion can be amended (primary amendment) and an amendment can be amended only once (secondary amendment). No amendment is permitted to a secondary amendment. If further amendments are desired, the question on the amendment to the amendment must be called before another amendment to the amendment can be made.

Corporate Policy Manual

Council Committee System Policy

The steps in the process are:

1. A motion is made.
2. An amendment to the motion is made.
3. An amendment to the amendment is made.
4. The question on the amendment to the amendment is called. (A further amendment to the amendment could be made here.)
5. The question on the amendment is called. (A further amendment to the main motion could be made here).
6. The question on the main motion is called.

Debate on Motions and Amendments

When an amendment is made, discussion is allowed on the amendment only, not on the main motion. Once the vote on the amendment is taken, discussion proceeds on the motion (as amended if the amendment passed).

Motions Permitted While Matter is Under Debate

During debate on a motion, there are a limited number of other motions which would be considered to be in order. These are: a motion to adjourn or recess the meeting, a motion to withdraw if made by the original mover, to amend, to refer to a subcommittee or to the Staff Liaison for report, or to postpone to a certain day. Questions of Privilege and Points of Order can also interrupt proceedings.

Replacement Motion

A replacement motion is like an amendment in that it sets aside the motion which it proposes to modify. If a replacement motion passes, there is no need to call the question on the original motion – the original motion is in effect gone. (“I move that the foregoing motion be replaced with the following: ...”)

Motion to Withdraw a Motion

A motion which has been duly moved and seconded may only be withdrawn with the consent of the original mover and seconder. Once a motion to withdraw a motion has been carried, there is no record made in the minutes of the original motion having existed. It will not appear in the minutes.

Motion to Refer

A motion to refer is a motion to send a main motion to a subcommittee or to staff for further study and report back. (“I move that the foregoing motion be referred to the committee’s subcommittee for review and report back to the committee by”)

Corporate Policy Manual
Council Committee System Policy

Motion to Defer Indefinitely

A motion to decline to take a position on an issue or motion. Note: with the limited authority of committees, such an action could require endorsement by Council. The Staff Liaison can assist in this event. (“I move that this item be deferred indefinitely” OR “I move that no action be taken on this issue at this time.”)

Motion to Defer to a Specific Date

A motion to stop debate and amendment and postpone consideration of an issue or motion to a specific future date.

Division of a Question

A motion to divide a main motion into separate motions if each part can stand on its own.

Adjourn

When a motion to adjourn is made, it means the meeting stops and will reconvene at another date and time. A motion to adjourn is not required if the agenda is completed – the Chair simply declares the meeting “closed” or “concluded”.

Recess

A motion to take a break in the meeting. A motion or call for a recess should specify the amount of time to be taken for the recess.

Point of Order

A statement that a rule of the committee is being violated. It is ruled on by the Chair whose decision may be appealed to committee and decided by committee resolution.

Question of Privilege

Raising a request or motion relating to the rights or comfort of the committee or an individual. It is decided by the Chair.

Point of Information

Reading of Motions

A member may require the motion under consideration to be read. The Legislative Services Coordinator would then read the motion. Sometimes staff will ask to read a motion if they are unsure what it is or if they feel others may not understand the exact motion being considered.

Corporate Policy Manual
Council Committee System Policy

Rules of Decorum and Debate

Committee meetings tend to be more informal than would a City Council meeting. The Chair of the committee has the duty and authority to allow the level of informality they feel would best facilitate the work of the committee.

Here are some meeting rules which may be helpful and may be used by the committee:

- the maker of a motion has a right to speak first to their motion;
- to speak a second time, a member should wait until all those who wish to speak have done so for the first time;
- members must remain courteous and avoid personal attacks on each other and staff;
- remarks must be confined to the motion before the committee;
- remarks are always directed “through the Chair”;
- members should not interrupt another speaker;
- there are no limitations on the number of times a member may speak, or the length of speeches;
- motions should be phrased concisely and to the point; and
- a decision to close debate can be made by unanimous general consent, by resolution, or by the Chair.
