Age-Friendly Plan – Focus Group

4.1 Presentation: Kate Milne, Cardea Health Consulting

Kate Milne provided an overview of the age-friendly process and gave a presentation on Age-Friendly Port Moody and noted the following:

- the process involves ensuring that input from older-adults, services providers, and caregivers is received; and
- work over the last month has included community engagement, literature reviews, researching key players, researching how older-adults are using services, and where the services are provided.

Ms. Milne and Committee members participated in a group exercise where feedback was requested on the following topics:

- outdoor spaces and buildings;
- transportation;
- housing;
- social participation and recreation;
- respect and social inclusion;
- civic participation and employment;
- communication and information; and
- community and health services.
