Introduction of Art at Council

1.1 Verbal Report: Councillor Zoë Royer, Chair, Arts and Culture Committee

Councillor Zoë Royer, Chair, Arts and Culture Committee, introduced the evening's Artefact at Council, an loco Imperial baseball uniform consisting of a jersey and pants worn by Mr. Frederick Hanson Jr., and donated to the Port Moody Station Museum by his wife Mrs. Pat Hanson.

Council's Vision: Port Moody, City of the Arts, is a unique, safe, vibrant waterfront city of strong neighbourhoods; a complete community that is sustainable and values its natural environment and heritage character.

Please note that Council meetings are recorded and streamed live to the City's website. Any comments you make at the meeting as well as your image may appear on the City's website.

EDMS#492055

Councillor Royer noted that the loco Imperial Baseball Team was one of the province's best teams in the 1920s, and twice won the BC Senior Baseball Championship in that period. Councillor Royer thanked the Port Moody Station Museum for providing the uniform.

2. Public Input

Tommy He (Vancouver), Principal of Bold Properties, spoke regarding item 9.6 – Waive 6-month Requirement – 2002-2014 St. George Street and 2003-2009 St. Johns Street, noting that BC Housing has assisted with the revision of his development proposal and that he looks forward to delivering affordable housing to Port Moody.

Hao Min (Vancouver), Principal of Bold Properties, spoke regarding item 9.6 – Waive 6-month Requirement – 2002-2014 St. George Street and 2003-2009 St. Johns Street, noting that he hopes to continue working with the City to deliver quality homes that meet the needs of Port Moody.

Jim Millar (Port Moody), on behalf of the Port Moody Heritage Society, expressed gratitude for the positive actions that have been occurring to revive the loco Townsite Conservation Area, and noted that these actions align with the upcoming 100th Anniversary of the Townsite. Mr. Millar requested a proclamation for Heritage Week and invited everyone to attend Heritage Week celebrations that are scheduled for February 23, 2020 at the Port Moody Station Museum.

Sarina Breder-Poulin (Port Moody) expressed support for the proposed update to the Tree Protection Bylaw, and noted that trees have a positive impact on the environment and wildlife.

Rebeka Breder (Port Moody) expressed support for the proposed update to the Tree Protection Bylaw, and noted that the current Bylaw provides limited protection of trees and that a permit should be required for the removal of trees.

Judy Taylor-Atkinson (Port Moody) expressed support for the proposed update to the Tree Protection Bylaw, and thanked Councillors Lahti and Lubik for their contributions. Ms. Taylor-Atkinson also noted that tree-related information could be provided on the City website as is done at the City of Burnaby and the City of Surrey.

Willy Martin (Port Moody) expressed concerns about the proposed update to the Tree Protection Bylaw, noting that it could impact private property owners' abilities to make changes to their landscaping.
